of the Constitution, a nonpartisan organization of public-spirited citiesns, working in the interest of good government and the upholding of American principles and traditions, has grown with remarkable rapidity in Illinous and is spreading to adjacent states.

Care is taken in examining the standing and records of all applicants for membership, but more than 30,000 persons are now enrolled in Northern Illinois. In the course of a year, it is believed, the membership will exceed 100,000, a compact, brainly, driving force that must be taken into consideration in campaigns and at all times. Sponsors of the organization believe it will become a powerful national body in the course of five years.

In brief, the principles of the Minute Men include these points: Respect for and obedience to the Constitution of the United States and its laws.

The election of men to Congress and other positions of trust, who are in sympathy with American resitions, ethics and principles and who have the nerve to stand for bees things.

OFFICIALS AT CONFERENCE
The El Potrero sugar plantation, owned by Mrs. Virginia King of New York, is another American property which has periodically been the subject of attention by the vera Cruz Agrarian Commission, and several times of diplomatic notes between the United States government and Mexico. It is significant that during the conferences, several officials of the company have been in Mexico who otherwise seldom come here. Although appropriation detrees have several times been issued towards the company's properties, they have never been enforced, chiefly due to representations made through the United States Embassy, causing orders from the Foreign Ministry which have periodically stayed action on the part of the Vera Cruz Agrarian Commission.

The Barbicora ranch of Chihuahua, a 100,000-acre Hearst property, received advice from the State Agrarian Commission, June 24, that a certain section was to be appropriated. It is understood that W. M. Ferris, the ranch manager here, placed his case before War-

Trouble Starts Over Plan to Clean Out Resorts

Citizens Aid Marshal in Bay City Battle

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Andrew J. Kane, head of the local detective agency that bears his name, and eleven of his opera-name, and eleven of his operatives were arrested in South San Francisco late Saturday night as peace disturbers while conducting what is asserted to have been an illegal prohibition raid.

City Marshai Wallace, first arrested by the raiders for interfering with their activities, turned the tables on the private detectives by obtaining warrants for them and, with the aid of a number of citizens he formed into a posse, placed the detectives under arrest after a pitched battle in the streets of the city.

The eleven operatives up to late last night were still in jail in South San Francisco and Redwood City. Although arrested along with his squad, Kane obtained his release after going bail of $1000, which was furnished by Justice of the Peace Walker of South San Francisco and F. A. Cunningham, notary public of the same town.

Incidentally, it was Cunning-ham, acting on his authority as a notary public, who hired Kane and his detectives to clear out several resorts, which Cunningham believed were handling beverages slightly more potent than tea. With Kane at their head, the private detectives, carrying an assortment of badges, including those of Deputy Fish Warden, Deputy Constable, Deputy Sheriff, Canadian Mounted Polica, litney driver and what not, it is said, marched into pool halls on Grand avenue and began to search for liquor.

WALLACE IS RELEASED Wallace soon obtained his re-lease on ball and mustering a vol-unteer posse hastily returned to the battlefield where Kane and his

and his aids were placed under arrest.

As the south San Francisco bastile was too small to accommodate Kane and his men, most of the prisoners were transferred to the County Jail at Redwood City. They will be taken before Justice of the Peace Farrell tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

"Cunningham had no business vringing in these outsiders who by the way, had a lot of unsigned search warrants from our city recorder's office." City Marshal Walace said. "He should have notified me, as I am authorized to deputize all the help I need in uch emergency.

"These intruders rampaged hrough pool-rooms and made hemselves generally obnoxious, and all over nothing. That's why I arrested them after they had me arrested."

CHICAGO, July 8 .- The American Mephitine Musteloid Carnivere, can Mephitine Mustelold Carnivere, more commonly known as the more or less pungent skunk, can stand for almost anything, but he balks and quits the game when put up against some of the screeching perfume used by the girls of today. This has been proven by three camp girls, the survivors of a band of nine that went for an outing on the Despaines River. Thunderstorms, mosquitos, chiggers, grass snakes and other incidents of camp life caused six of the group to weaken and fee back to the city, but three sturdy ones decided to stick.

"We came for two weeks and we intended to stay," they declared Last night that dirty old skunk ame snooping around our camp. Did you ever meet a skunk close up? Well, you will understand.

"Details are superfluous, but we decided not to let a measly old skunk drive us out, so we went through our first aid kits and found a bottle of awful perfume that a boy had given one of our party.

"Hit The Line Hard!"

This exhortation is being made to men, women and children by educators, preachers, editors, sales managers, business directors and other leaders in all walks of life. It is all right and a fine thing—in fact, THE thing to do—to tell a man to "hit the line hard." But just remember, there are many, altogether too many, who do not have this HITTING POWER. Parsons' adjustments give "HITTING POWER."

MAE PARSONS, D.C., Ph.C.

2.500,000 Men in the first draft were disqualified for active military service because of physical defects which rendered them unable to "hit the line hard." Being unfit for military service, they were therefore unfit to render FULL service in ANY capacity. They were unable to get FULL returns from life in any position. Parsons' Chiropractic adjustments correct slight displacements in the backbone. The vital force to every organ is transmitted by way of the spinal nerves, through the openings be-tween the bones (see cut below.) There is practically no other way that the pressure can occur sufficiently to reduce your "hitting power."

Parsons studies the BACKBONE, makes his analysis of the BACKBONE and gently adjusts the BACK-BONE. It is his business to keep your spinal bones in alignment. This will do more to raise your hitting power to its full limit than ANYTHING ELSE you can do.

* CITY WILL PAY TEN-CENT BILL

ST. PAUL, July 8. — The city of Rochester, as a unit, wishes to be honest. FARMERS HARD PRESSED Advices from typical districts in the wheat, corn, hog and caetile belts indicate that the agriculturists who have been hard pressed since 1920 are trying to adjust themselves through longer hours and harder work by the farmer's family and by pooling resources of labor and implements in groups of five or six farms. Wages have been mounting ever since the labor shortage put in its appearance six or eight months ago. Barney Cohen, district director of the United States Employment Service, who has just made a survey, says farm wages in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio are almost back to the "peak" year.

WORSE NEAR CENTERS FARMERS HARD PRESSED

WORSE NEAR CENTERS

The nearer a rural district is to a great industrial center or belt, the higher are the wages of farm workers, which is to be expected. In the region within a hamdred-mile radius of Chicago, Mr.
Cohen reports male farm labor by the month is running $50 to $70 a month, with *Bom, bound and washing. It is almost up to the 1920 mark. Men are being sent out as day farm laborers now to take jobs at $5 a day with board, but they have to be experienced men.
The wages by the month or day are more than double what they were before the war. In Kansas and Nebraska day hands are reported to be getting $3.50 and $4 a day with board, which represents an increase of $0 cents and more over a year ego. WORSE NEAR CENTERS increase of so cannot be a year ago.

Meanwhile the trend of farm prices is in the opposite direction. Four important farm products are higher than a month ago, while eighteen are lower.

HARD COAL MINE CONTROL URGED

Commission Seeks to Guard Public in Emergency

Product Called Necessity of Life, in Report

Government Ownership Hit; Discourage Secrets

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Go

washington, July s.—Government supervision of the anthractic coal industry to a degree sufficient to insure individual and corporate responsibility to the public is made in the report of the United States Coal Commission made public today.

While the present report deals only with the anthracite industry, it is indicated that more definite and possibly more far-reaching recommendations, applicable also to the bituminous industry, will be made in the final report in September.

made in the final report in September.

The commission opposes government ownership of coal mines. It lays down the principle, however, that coal is as much a public necessity as gas, street railway service, or any other service or commodify that has been brought under public regulation. It is declared that there should be no secrets from the public relative to mining costs, profits, salaries, wages or corporate relations. To this end it is proposed that a governmental authority be established with power to require financial and operation reports, to prescribe uniform methods of cost accounting and to determine conditions on which coal may be shipped in interstate commerce.

URGE PRESIDENTIAL POWER

URGE PRESIDENTIAD POWER

The commission further recommends that in the event of a suspension of mining operations the President shall be authorized to take over the production of the mines and distribution of coal and to determine prices, wages and compensation to land and naine to owners.

The commission includes in its report a great mass of data intended for the use of the wagescale committees of the anthracite operators and miners, which have begun sessions at Atlantic City in an effort to reach a new wage agreement to take the place of that expiring on August 31.

The commission, however, does not attempt to say whether present wages in general are too high or low, or whether operators or retailers are making excessive profits. It is indicated that the profits of the operators per ton are considerably larger than formerly, but that in view of a controversy over methods for determining the basis of valuation of anthracite properties no opinion can be given as to whether profits are excessive. The method of determining valuation, it is stated is a matter for the couris to decide.

A plan for the appointment by the President of one or more persons to investigate contracts is suggested. It is especially uregd that the anthracite and bituminous wage agreements shall not expire simultaneously as was the case last year.

Returning to find that a city marshal had padiocked the door. Miss Loderwick forced an entrance the night on a window seat with only a newspaper to pillow her head. This morning she made a vain but pathetic plea to the S.P. C.A., for the return of her dog. All offers of assistance that did not include a plan to remain in the house she defiantly rejected.

Miss Loderwick, who talks constantly about intimate friendships with the Morgans and Vanderbilts, charges that the Y.M.C.A. defrauded her of $25,000 and asserts that she is the daughter of the fifth mayor of New York. New York never had a mayor by the name of Loderwick, When an unidentified sympathiser gave her $20 she spent the money to put her furniture in storage.

EDITOR BERNSTEIN TO SUE FORD FOR LIBEL

PENALTIES SOUGHT

In discussing the question of the right of a man to work as he pleases and collective bargaining, both principles which are involved, it is declared that collective bargaining of the bargain, and it is proposed that penalties for breaches be included in new agreements.

Three-fourths of the anthracite mined, it is stated, is produced by nine large companies which have a price ranging from $8 to $8.35 per ton running through the year.

The labor coat per ton in the mining of the coal advanced since 1912 from $1.55 to $4.12. retaining virtually the same relation to total cost, while the cost of supplies has doubled and general expenses almost trabled. The total cost by a gross ton of all sizes is given as $5.75 for railroad mines and $8.32 for certain large independents. In 1913 the relative cost was $2.23 and $2.50, respectively.

The commission points out that anthractic coal is a limited natural monopoly, one-third of the deposits of which already have ben exhausted. It is stated that the dissolution of the railroads and the coal mines is so recent that it is yet impossible to say whether the natural monopoly will be in restraint of trade.

onite! The Greatest of all Antiseptics

What It Is

ZONITE is a concentrated, stabilized and perfected form of the Carrel-Darin Solution.

The Carrel-Darin Solution is an antiseptic developed during the World War by two eminent scientists. War hospital records show that it reduced amputations and deaths from infection over seventy per cent and saved the lives of hundreds of thousands of desperately wounded men. It has been adopted and is in daily use by the medical profession and in hospitals throughout the civilized world.

By standard laboratory tests Zonite has more than three times the germicidal strength of pure carbolic acid. It has about seventy-five times the germicidal strength of percuide of hydrogen and forty times the germicidal strength of any solution of carbolic acid, iodine, bichloride of mercury, etc., that can be applied with safety to the human body. In addition to its high germicidal efficiency, Zonite is non-poisonous, non-irritating, non-caustic and healing. It can be used freely and frequently on the delicate membranes and tissues of the human body without harm. ed, stabilized and perfected form of the Carrel-Daxin

What It Does

For Cuts and Wounds

Zonite should be promptly applied to a fresh cut or wound to destroy the germs which cause blood poisoning and other similar forms of infection. In addition to acting as a disinfectant, it will shorten the process of hesling and greatly reduce the usual pain and inflammation.

As a Mouth Wash

As a Moisso of one tesepoonful Zonite added to one-quarter glass of water used night and morning as a mouth wash will destroy breath odors and act as an excellent preventive against pyorrhea. Dental authorities have stated that the daily use of Zonite in this manner, together with regular dental inspection, reduces the likelihood of contracting this disease to a minimum.

Sore Throat

Nearly all the allments of the throat are due to bacterial infection. Prompt relief, therefore, can not be obtained without the use of an effective germicide. One part Zonite to five parts water as a gargle or throat spray usually clears up and controls throat infections. In severe cases, especially when ulcerations are present, the throat should be swab-bed with pure Zonite and your physician called. Begin treatment promptly when symptoms first appear.

For Burns, Scalds and Blisters

Zoalte is especially valuable in the treatment of burns, scalds and blisters. It prevents infection, sids in removing charred or dead tissue, helps to reduce inflammation, and accelerates healing. It also lessens scars and disfigurations that are apt to follow wounds of this character.

For Personal Hygiene

Zonite is the ideal antiseptic for personal hygiene. Poisonous caustic compounds, such as bichloride of mercury, phenol and cresol solutions, etc., are tremendously harmful when used regularly for douche medication. Any physician will verify this statement. Write for the Zonite booklet on personal hydronesters.

For Dandruff

Por Dandruff
Dandruff (seborrhes sicca) and many other scalp irritations are due to bacterial infection. Zonite has proved remarkably effective in removing these annoying conditions. It kills the micro-organisms, dissolves and removes the scaling incrustations and exercises a stimulating and to effect on the scale tissues and hair follicles.

Angeles an organ recital and choir of 130 voices were picked up by remote control panels and sent out with clear beauty to listeners-in.

Beginning at 9:30 a.m., KHJ sent out organ music for half an hour, transmitting the wonderful tones of the $50,000 organ in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Rev. Eimer E. Helms is pastor. Arthur Blakeley, noted organist, was at the Ewart Watchern Memorial organ.

No announcement was made in advance that the dedication ceremony was to be put on the air. Listeners-in heard the marvelous music, a powerful sermon and a great choir. They also heard the presentation speech in which Dr. Helms was given a deed to a cost-by home, the gift of his congregation. For a time radio fans did not know which station was on the air.

The broadcast marked one of the most successful concerts by line telephony as an adjunct to broadcast in the history of radio. It was control in the history of radio. It was imbued with a personality that no one knows. Had this amount, however, been used to relieve the want of workmen forced out of employment by these same radical leaders, it would have prevented acute suffering.

NEW YORK, July 8 .- Just how many millions of dollars have been spent in this country during the past five years carrying on the radicals' campaign of implanting unrest, distrust, ill feeling and class consciousness in the minds of the people, no one knows. Had this amount, however, been used to relieve the want of workmen forced out of employment by these same radical leaders, it would have prevented acute suffering.

It has probably already taken at least $100,000 to carry on the defense of William Z. Foster and the second of the conserved of the c of money, giving us a splendid opportunity for propaganda concerning Russia."

It will be recalled that Charles Garland, the Massachusetts youth who had conscientious scruples about taking the fortune left him by his father, gave his fortune, something over $500,000, to the radicals. If newspaper reports are to be credited young Garland did not have the same "conscientious scruples" about maintaining two women in his "love neat." for, it would be seen, this is quite in harmony with what is called "liberalism." This money was turned over unconditionally to a corporation known as the American Fund for Public Service. The directorate or, as they call it, the executive or, as they call it is to be done.

Turns back now the fatility of the conference for progressive political executions, all foreign or the conference or progressive political propaga

Gasoline consumption so far this month is keeping pace with that of May, which is reported as the largest in the history of the industry, in former years the consumption during May was greater than in June, but from present indications June will exceed May this year. No change in price is looked for in Labricating oils are in good demand. Prices are well maintained, but in some instances they show signs of easing off slightly in large sales. Cylinder oils and spindle stocks are in fair request. Neutral oils are selling in direct proportion to gasoline, Production of wax is well sold up. Manufacturers of wax papers and liquid containers are consuming large quantities.

Oils giving a hard surface to roads are in constant demand. Fuel oil sales are gradually declining, although holding up well for this time of the year.

National Petroleum News says: Gasoline markets are weaker. The arbitrary price set by most Mid-Continent refiners of 13½ cents on Navy gasoline two weeks ago has been untenable. Navy today is 11½ to 12 cents in Okiahoma and Texas, and brokers say they can buy this grade as low as 11 cents.

Occident, West Treasure and G.A.R. claims, are getting out high grade.

Renewed activity is expected in Chloride following dismissal of indictments found in the Federal court of Frank A. Garbutt and associates. There is report that operation of the Tennessee mine is to be recumed soon and that a milling plant is to be erected by the company at Topock. on the Colorado River, where the Santa Fe crosses the stream. The Tennessee ores are very base. It is planned to smelt the lead ores at Topock and to ship the concentrates that have any tine excess. Frank Cofer, owner of the famous old Rawhide mine in the Bill Williams section of Southern Mohave county, for years has been looking for the continuation of the mine's main vein, lost in a silp, such as is common in this country. The ore down to the slip, worked out years ago, uniformly was of very high grade in silver, with some copper.

Surface mining in Western Arisona is having its summer shutdown. Only Mohave Indians are available for surface work and the transient miner usually drifts for the heated season to higher latitudes or seeks employment in the deep mines, such as those at Jerome, Globe or Bisbee. The heat especially affects development on such properties as those lying between Oatman and the Colorado River.

Harry R. Haines and Ollie Waller.

A dispute arose over the possession of the house at 11667 San Fernando Road, which the Fullers rented from the Rowans, according to the complaint, and when the Fullers were gone on a visit the Rowans are said to have moved out all the furniture and changed the locks on the doors.

Upon returning home the Fullers were unable to gain entrance to the house and when the Rowans refused to open the door, they broke the locks. The Rowans then called the police, who arrested the couple, it is acclared. Officers Haines and Waller responded to the call.

On the following day Fuller was taken to the district attorney's office where a complaint was refused and the plaintiffs released, it is alleged.

Twelve Shafts Sunk With Several Fine Ore Showings

GOLDTOWN, July 3.—Despite the torrid heat of the desert at this time of year mining activity continues to show improvement. At present upward of twelve shafts are being sunk in the camp and development work on a large scale is being prosecuted on the Standard Gold, Yellow Dog, Yellow Dog Extension and Karma mines. As a result of this work several fine showings of high-grade ore have been disclosed, especially the bonanza ore now being sacked in the winze on the 900-foot level of the uncovering of eighteen inches of ore assaying over $100 a to on a cross vein 500 feet south of the main shaft within a few feet of the warface. Further prospecting has shown what is believed to be a new shoot of rich ore, the extent of which will be known when further developed. The drifts on the 100 and 200-foot levels, both north and south of the main shaft, are being extended with very encouraging showings.

DRIED FRUIT

Although there is still nothing of a definite character with respect to the drifted fruit prices for interest has attached to cattered offerings by independents in prunes and raisins. Rumors continue that the California Prune and Apricot Association will name prices this week. A sale of 1922 raisins in local warehouses shipped to New York in the early part of the season which was not taken by the purchaser was held at the close of last week. Reports from California Indicated that damage has been done to the growing raisin grape crop from mildew.

The New York Mercantile Exchange has closed its Saturday calls some time in September and as a result the usual duliness of the week's wind-up in the butter market was intensified. Sellers have had the market in complete control all week, and prices were steadily advanced on the highest qualities of fresh creamery. The storage season is in full blast, and there has been active competition to obtain certain brands made up of long lines and which were naturally sought for a long spell in freezers. At the advanced prices some speculators refused to take on further lines, but out-of-town buyers were on the job and picked up a great many parcels. High scores are still numerous enough to supply the wants of buyers.

Don't envy every good complexion you see, and wish for something that would give your skin the flush and beauty of youth, but go today and get a jar of Hokara—the cream that quickly assists and stimulates nature in restoring dry faded cheeks to their normal healthy charm and beauty.

There is no excuse for your skin to look tired and drawn. Keep the texture of the skin tissues smooth and fine, the pores so they will breathe new life into your skin, and the blood vessels active to add color to the cheeks.

A gentle daily massage with Hokara stimulates the skin texture, clears the pores—and the dead black skin and dirt just roll away. Try this with a little Hokara—even after you have washed your hands and fare. It's a test worth trying.

DAYLIGHT HOLD-UP WITH CROWDS NEAR

M. Medway, who operates a tailoring establishment in 184 South Main street, was held up and robbed of $848 yesterday afternoon while crowds thronged the street in front of his establishment unaware of the robbery. Medway was counting money in a cash drawer when a man asked to be admitted. Medway sold him a pair of overalls and was changing a two-dollar bill when he was ordered to throw up his handa. He turned to face his erstwhile customer and found a revolver leveled at his head. The robber told him to walk to the rear of the store and make no outcry. The hold-up man then departed via the front door with the cash.

For more than ten years the railroads

One hears so much about the great Sequolas, one is as inundated with statistics, descriptions and advice about what one ought to think when at last one stands beneath them that one approaches the saperience with dread. It seems as if only with difficulty could one prove either worthy or capable of all the required emotions.

But in realisation the experience, like all great ones, was amazingty simple, natural and direct. We got up at 5 o'clock of a clear, cold morning and walked down a winding forest road. It was very still; a hidden stream was talking to itself in sweet and liquid syllables; an early woodpecker drummed at intervals upon a dand stump somewhere up that mountainside; that was all.

The forest seemed very gray and old; somewhat aloof, certainly; but the no means unfriendly. We fail

The forest seemed very gray and old; somewhat aloof, certainty; but by no means unfriendly. We felt that if we were to sit down and woo it with strict and silent attention it might become even a trific communicativa.

But we were bound for the big trees. These huge sugar pines, with their long arms swung gracefully across the sky, standing in solemn contemplation of a merely amused? But she said very grymies to our anticipation. These trees were big when Columbus came, but were we not soon to see the oldest living things on earth? No sugar pine is small enough to deserve the scorn of any man, but it is likewise true that no sugar pine is amail enough to deserve the scorn of any man, but it is likewise true that no sugar pine is amail enough to notice it. They live by larger outlooks.

But suddenly we rounded a bend in the road, and down a long vist of gray and brown trunks we saw a trunk that was not gray or brown, but red . . There are no words to describe that memon to describe it honestly and without rineoric; and yet it was so very simple—like meeting an old love, or your own past youth, or some mountain delty walkin, in his garden before sunrise—simple but with an incredible element, as though an ideal had gracious hecome reality.

No, there are no words to describe that sight, that sudden sense of contact with a beaut/ theretofore wholly outside one's conscious necessaries. For there are no parallel experiences, nothing that invites comparison. One may have seen all the trees in the world except these, and they will be a new discovery still like the finding of a planet.

Very diffidently we approached, and presently walked among these

But the sequoias are alive, and the rest is the rest is the rest is the rest in the cannot seem to be alive.

Is that why we did not declare war, against Turkey? We must not offend her because certain rich men want oil? an essential, nay, an indispensable part of our community life. The desideratum of life's activities is happiness. And no community can be happy without crime. What is it that gives exhiliaration and spice to life? Crime. What is it that thrills us unutterably, that makes our nerves tingle with transports of joy? Crime—the report of a piquant divorce case, an intriguing burglary, or a murder beautifully done. What meal would be complete without a daring hold-up, a trunk mystery, and hammer murder, or the maltreating hold-up, a trunk mystery, and hammer murder, or the maltreating hold-up, a trunk mystery, and hammer murder, or the maltreating hold-up, a trunk mystery, and hammer murder, or the most highly honored class in society, the lawyers, would be loopardised by the suppression of crime. Would we have these admirable men—some of them husbands, some lovers, some the fathers of familles—forced to begin for bread on the streets, or to become shoe clerks, corset salesmen or actors?

Crime is necessary. Criminals should be encouraged and looked up to as public benefactors. There are other touches of personality in the characters that endow the drams with more than the usual significance. I cits as an unusual type and one destined perhaps for exotic and vampish prominence, Jetta Gondal, who appears as La Pilar. She is as bigarre and distinctive as any woman who has appeared on the screen in months. William Powell offers a sublety that intrigues as a Spanish captain, while Anders Randof is a rare old villaining captain.

Dick Barthelmess never ceases to be splendid in any pictures in which he appears. He is a little out of his element in his costume role, but acts it with a heroic determination.
